What is the Health Equity Action Plan (HEAP)?

The Health Equity Action Plan is a plan of action to eliminate health disparities and assure health equity for all Veterans.

Has VHA ever had a HEAP?

No, this VHA's first ever Health Equity Action Plan.

What is the goal of the HEAP?

Provide appropriate individualized, pro-active and patient-driven health care in a way that eliminates health disparities and assures health equity.

What Strategic Goals does the HEAP support?

The HEAP supports the goals of I CARE core values, Blueprint for Excellence and VHA Strategic Plan Objective 1(e)—Quality & Equity. The HEAP embraces the I CARE core values and characteristics by coordinating VHA programs, projects, and initiatives to effectively identify, understand, seek and implement solutions to diminish and where possible eliminate health disparities. These united values reflect our commitment to Veterans and their families. Please see the cross walk table below:

The HEAP is developed to align with VHA Strategic Plan Objective 1(e)—Quality & Equity: Veterans will receive timely, high quality, personalized, safe, effective and equitable health care, irrespective of geography, gender, race, age, culture or sexual orientation. The HEAP also impacts VHA Strategic Plan Objectives 1(b)—Communication and 1(g)—Collaboration.

Does the HEAP align with other national initiatives in the area of health equity?

The implementation activities of the HEAP are modeled after the five goal framework of the National Partnership for Action's National Stakeholder Strategy for Achieving Health Equity sponsored by the Department of Health and Human Services. These goals are reflected within the HEAP as the following focus areas:

- Awareness
- Leadership
- Health system and life experience
- Cultural and linguistic competency
- Data, research, and evaluation

What is Health Equity?

Health equity* is the attainment of the highest level of health for all people, a health disparity is a particular type of health difference that is closely linked with social or economic disadvantage. *Definition adopted from Healthy People 2020.

What vulnerable populations do health disparities affect?

Health disparities tend to adversely affect groups of people who have systematically experienced greater social and/or economic obstacles to health and/or safe environment based on the following characteristics: racial or ethnic group, gender, age, geographic location, religion, socio-economic status, military era, sexual orientation, mental health, disability (cognitive, sensory, physical) and other characteristics historically linked to discrimination or exclusion. As stated in the Blueprint for Excellence Fact Sheet, we must operate a healthcare network that anticipates and meets the unique needs of enrolled Veterans, in general, and the service disabled and most vulnerable Veterans, in particular.

Who created the HEAP?

The Health Equity Coalition, a VA-wide steering committee, created VHA's first HEAP.

What offices make up the Health Equity Coalition?

Over 14 different program offices and VISNs are involved in the Health Equity Coalition. The Coalition works collaboratively with executive members across VHA and VA. Please visit the Health Equity Coalition Intranet page for a complete list of Coalition members and the offices they represent.
